

PART II - Directions: Prepositions are words that indicate relationships between things. In the spaces below, add ten prepositions that could be used to show the relationship between the word and where you write it in and around the house.

