

“An Unforgettable Journey”

Lit Book, p. 271 - 275

Name _____

Date _____ Period _____

In the following sentences, the context clues point you to the meaning of each underlined word. Use the context clues to identify the meaning of each underlined word. (Read Lit Book, p. 277 for more information.)

1. Instead of finding a safe, warm refuge, they suffered exposure to the wind and rain.

Meaning: _____

Clues: _____

2. In contrast to people who made a transition between cultures, some of the exiles never moved away from their own traditions.

Meaning: _____

Clues: _____

3. Although we expected persecution for our beliefs, we found acceptance.

Meaning: _____

Clues: _____

4. Refugees are unlike people who have homes and live in their own countries.

Meaning: _____

Clues: _____

5. People who have plenty of food and even luxuries cannot understand the deprivation experienced in the refugee camps.

Meaning: _____

Clues: _____

6. From what point of view is this story told?

Give examples of two facts and two opinions from the story.

Facts	Opinions
7.	9.
8.	10.

Give examples of two objective details and two subjective details from the story.

Objective Details	Subjective Details
11.	13.
12.	14.

15. Review the last paragraph on page 275. Then, decide what the main idea of this life story appears to be. Write your response as a complete sentence in the space below.

Main Idea Sentence

Use complete sentences to answer the following questions:

16. How would this story have been different if it had been written for a history textbook from an historian's point of view?

17. In what way are Maijue's experiences similar or different from the experiences of the main character in your Lit Circle novel?

18. In the space below, make a timeline that shows the main events in Maijue's life and journey. Be sure to sequence them chronologically.

